Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 10, 2016, George McNamee informed the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of iRobot Corporation (the “Company”) that he will retire from the Board following the end of his term at the Company’s upcoming 2016 annual meeting of stockholders. Mr. McNamee’s decision did not result from any disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to the Company’s operations, policies or practices.

On March 13, 2016, the Board, based on the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, elected Michael Bell to the Board. Mr. Bell will stand for election at the Company’s upcoming 2016 annual meeting of stockholders. The Company expects that Mr. Bell will be appointed to serve on the Audit Committee.

In connection with his election to the Board, Mr. Bell will be awarded restricted stock units under the Company’s 2015 Stock Option and Incentive Plan having a fair market value of $220,000, measured at the end of the tenth week of the Company’s first fiscal quarter, in accordance with the Company’s director compensation practices. There are no understandings or arrangements between Mr. Bell and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Bell was elected as a director.

Information concerning the membership of the Board’s committees is publicly available on the Company’s website at <http://www.irobot.com>. The Company intends to disclose changes in the membership of the Board’s committees by posting this information on its website and/or in its public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On March 14, 2016, the Company issued a press release announcing Mr. Bell’s election to the Board and other governance matters. The full text of the press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The information in this Item 7.01 and Exhibit 99.1 attached hereto is intended to be furnished and shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Exchange Act, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

iRobot Appoints Michael Bell to Board of Directors

Deborah Ellinger Named Lead Independent Director

George McNamee to Retire

Company Announces Corporate Governance Enhancements

BEDFORD, Mass., March 14, 2016 - iRobot Corp. (NASDAQ: IRBT), a leader in delivering robotic technology-based solutions, today announced that Michael Bell has been appointed to the Board of Directors, effective immediately. He will stand for election at the upcoming iRobot Annual Meeting of Shareholders along with Mohamad Ali. George McNamee will retire from the Board following the end of his term at the Annual Meeting. The Board has also named Deborah Ellinger as Lead Independent Director, effective immediately.

As a pioneer in the “Internet of Things,” Mr. Bell is an innovative product-oriented executive who brings iRobot significant software and technology expertise. He currently serves as President and Chief Executive Officer, as well as a Board Member, of Silver Spring Networks (NYSE: SSNI), a leading networking platform and solutions provider for smart energy networks based in Redwood City, CA, a position he has held since September 2015. Mr. Bell has been deeply involved in the development of several market-making technology products in senior leadership positions at Apple, Palm and Intel. Notably, he was responsible for founding and developing a new group at Intel focused on smart technology and connected devices. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering and Applied Mechanics from the University of Pennsylvania.

“We are excited to welcome Michael Bell to our Board,” said Ms. Ellinger. “Michael is a seasoned executive who has extensive experience in software and consumer technology. He is a true leader in connected technology and the Internet of Things, which is increasingly critical to iRobot’s go-forward product strategy.”

Mr. Bell said, “iRobot has the leading in-home robot market position and a unique platform to take advantage of the rapidly evolving market for connected devices. I am excited to help iRobot further develop and differentiate its product offering to benefit both customers and shareholders. This is an exciting time for iRobot, and I am pleased to join the team.”

Ms. Ellinger added, “On behalf of the entire Board, we want to thank George for his leadership and insights, and wish George well in his retirement.”

Corporate Governance Enhancements

In addition, iRobot announced the following corporate governance enhancements:

- Declassification of the Board: iRobot will seek shareholder approval at the Annual Meeting to declassify its Board of Directors.
- Adoption of Proxy Access for Shareholders: iRobot has amended its bylaws to provide proxy access for eligible iRobot shareholders. iRobot's bylaws now allow holders of at least three percent of iRobot's stock who have held the shares for at least three years to include nominees for iRobot's Board of Directors in the Company's proxy materials.
- Elimination of Supermajority Voting Requirements: iRobot will seek shareholder approval at the Annual Meeting to eliminate supermajority voting requirements in its governing documents relating to removal of directors and amendments to iRobot's certificate of incorporation and bylaws.
- Codification of Lead Independent Director: iRobot has amended its bylaws to codify that a Lead Independent Director will be appointed when the Company's CEO is also its Chairman. iRobot has had a Lead Independent Director since its 2005 IPO.
